Privacy notice for staff

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Academy Trust uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work within our Trust.

We, The Skinners' Kent Academy Trust, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is SPS DPO Services.

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our Academy Trust. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Name
- Contact details
- Date of birth, marital status and gender
- Next of kin and emergency contact numbers
- Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information
- Bank account details, payroll records, National Insurance number and tax status information
- Recruitment information, including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process
- Qualifications and employment records, including work history, job titles, working hours, training records and professional memberships
- Safeguarding information, DBS number, Disqualification by Association information
- Performance information
- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures
- Absence data
- Copy of driving licence and car registration
- Photographs
- CCTV images

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs and sexual orientation
- Health, including any medical conditions, sickness records and disability status

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us run The Academy Trust, including to:

- Enable you to be paid including necessary deductions
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils/students
- Support effective performance management
- Inform our recruitment and retention policies
- Allow better financial modelling and planning
- Enable ethnicity and disability monitoring
- Improve the management of workforce data across the sector
- Support the work of the School Teachers' Review Body
- To report to the DFE

Our legal basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you
- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify The Academy Trust's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Privacy Notice for Staff

How we store this data

Staff records are stored securely in paper files and on The Academy Trust's secure server.

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools, available on request from The Academy Trust offices.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with the General Data Protection Regulation, otherwise known as the GDPR) we may share personal information about you with:

- Our local authority, to meet legal obligation
- The Department for Education, to meet legal obligation
- Your family or representatives with written consent, to protect your vital interests
- Educators and examining bodies, to fulfill a contract
- Our regulator, ESFA, to meet legal obligation
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as payroll
- Our auditors, to meet legal obligation □ Health authorities, to fulfill a contract
- Health and social welfare organisations, to meet legal obligation such as Riddor reporting
- Professional advisers and consultants, to fulfill a contract
- Police forces, courts, tribunals, to meet legal obligation
- Ofsted, to meet legal obligation

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with the GDPR.

Your rights How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' (SAR) to gain access to personal information that The Academy Trust holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for

Privacy Notice for Staff

- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please apply in writing, citing your reasons to the Executive Principal or refer to the SAR form on the staff shared area.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Executive Principal.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
